

Call for Papers
Propose a Presentation for the Finnish Conference on Cultural Policy
Research
Deadline for submissions extended until 10 October!

The fifth Finnish Conference on Cultural Policy Research will be organised on 8–9 November 2018 in Turku, Finland, with the theme
Art, culture and inequality

The Conference provides a multidisciplinary platform for those interested in cultural policy phenomena. The aim of the Conference is to advance our understanding of how societal inequality can be addressed and perhaps reduced through art and culture, while simultaneously critically examining culture and art as a producer of inequality.

The call for papers for the Finnish Conference on Cultural Policy Research is open!

Send your presentation proposal to paivat.kpt@gmail.com by 10 October 2018.

Enclose in your proposal:

- Your name and contact information
- Title of the proposed presentation
- Abstract (max. 300 words)

More information on the programme coming soon: <https://kulttuuripolitiikantutkimus.fi>

The Finnish Conference on Cultural Policy Research is organised by Society for Cultural Policy Research in Finland, School of History, Culture and Arts Studies/ University of Turku and Arts Academy/ Turku University of Applied Sciences.

For more information, contact:
paivat.kpt@gmail.com